

Trout Insurance Privacy Notice Statement

This notice explains how Trout Insurance may collect, use and share your information. Please read over it carefully and contact your agent if you have any questions.

Trout Insurance respects your privacy. The information gathered by our agents will only be used to help you obtain health insurance. Below is a list of frequently asked questions concerning this notice.

Why did you give me this notice?	Trout Insurance is legally required to give you this notice by applicable law and our agreement with the federal government. We respect your personal information and want you to understand how we may use and share this information.
What information will you ask me to give you?	We must collect certain information about you, called Personally Identifiable Information (“PII”) in order to help you complete your application for health insurance. This information can be used to identify you or trace your identity. A few examples (not a complete list) of PII include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Name, address, date of birth, telephone number • Social security number • Household income, marital status • Race or ethnicity • Credit or debit card numbers
How will you use my information?	We will only use the information that we need to help you obtain health insurance through the Federally-facilitated Exchange (“FFE”) and to provide Authorized Functions approved by the FFE, or other service as permitted under applicable state law. A few examples (not a complete list) of authorized functions we may conduct include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Helping with your application for insurance • Answering questions about your eligibility • Helping to enroll you in a qualified health plan • Helping with filing appeals of eligibility determinations • Correcting errors in your application
Will you share my information with anyone?	Trout Insurance may only share your information as described in this notice. We may share your information with certain Federal or State agencies, the health insurance issuer that you select or subcontractors that may help us provide services to you. We must get your permission to share your information for any other purpose not described in this notice.
What happens if I don’t share my information with you?	If you do not want to share your information, you may not be able to enroll in a health insurance plan.
Will you keep my information safe?	Yes. Trout Insurance is required to keep your information safe. We have developed privacy and security policies that must be followed to make sure your PII is protected.